Junior-Senior High School
OB・OG展 土佐塾校OB・OG展

...and catches the sun all day long. A quarter of a century ago, the students and teachers of Tosajuku Junior and Senior High School were largely a result of the school's four philosophical pillars: B (Buddhism), I (Integrity), K (Knowledge) and U (Unity). The results of their efforts are seen in the number of the graduates who have entered university as well as helping them in their careers. It is a long, hard road for many other fields. Very few can emphasize on BI certainly help to try to achieve their goals. Encouragement from the school is one reason to hold the "TSJKism" exhibition this time is to show them the graduates. Over these 25 years, they have educated themselves to continue. One of them may represent Japan of Tosajuku. Another reason for holding the Junior-Senior High School exhibition is to be respected in the community.
